VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 21. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 24, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

For something new, nice, economical and effective, try a box of Swettenham's Version Asked.

The British Colonial Office is in possession of official advices from Sir Alexander Swettenham, Governor of Jamaica concerning the exchange of letters between himself and Rear-Admiral Davis, but the extent of these advices, and whether or not they contain an explanation, an apology or extenuating circumstances, has not been disclosed.

The Imperial authorities requested the Governor of Jamaica to send them a copy of his letter to Rear-Admiral Davis which has been furnished. The Secretary for the Colonies, Lord Elgin, sent a second cablegram to Governor Swettenham asking him to give his version of the affair, and to this no answer yet has been received.

The fact that Governor Swettenham wrote the letter to Rear-Admiral Davis having been established, there remains only to determine the official formalities, and the indications are that the matter will be handled through the usual diplomatic channels and that the correspondence will be made public in a blue book.

Discussion of the incidents discloses the fact that the British view makes a clear differentiation between Governor Swettenham's opposition to the presence of a foreign force on Jamaican soil and his manner of expressing this opposition. What the British government and people now condemn is the tone of the letter to Rear-Admiral Davis, the foreign office having declared that there was "no excuse for such language from an official to the officer of a friendly nation engaged in a work of humanity," and the press and public are adopting a substantially similar view. But on the question whether or not Governor Swettenham was justified in asking Rear-Admiral Davis to withdraw his armed forces from the island, British opinion inclines to hold that Governor Swettenham acted clearly within his rights, although many persons contend that the abnormal conditions should have induced the governor to waive the usual requirements, if, as is supposed Rear-Admiral Davis landed marines at Kingston without a specific request from the governor.

Suit Against Millionaire.

After striving for months to keep from the world the fact that her domestic life had been wrecked, Mrs. Albert Edward Tower, the lonely inmate of the great Tower mansion at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Tuesday afternoon acknowledged that her husband was the millionaire named by Lawyer Henry J. Hancock in the sensational suit he has just filed in New York against Mrs. Minnie L. Weis, a good-looking young matron of that city.

In his petition, which had been laid before Justice Leventritt, Hancock seeks to collect $2,500, which, he says, Mrs. Weis owes him for his professional services in endeavoring to secure for her a divorce from her husband, Louis Weis, a rich Southern brewer, in order that she might be free to marry Albert Edward Tower as soon as he could succeed in ridding himself of his wife, who, as May Bogardus, was known as the "beautiful telephone girl of Poughkeepsie."

Incidentally, Hancock alleged that, to his knowledge, the wealthy lover of Mrs. Weis had given her in the past few months cash presents amounting to nearly $70,000, including one Christmas gift of 15 new one thousand dollar bills.

Other and equally interesting developments are following fast upon the heels of Hancock's disclosure. Mrs. Weis, who has been living recently at the Hotel Belmont under the name of "Miss A. L. Weis," left her rooms early yesterday and disappeared. Hancock, suddenly realizing what a tempest his suit had started, is in hiding until the atmosphere clears.

Tower is entrenched in his sumptuous suite at the Millionaires' Club, on Fifth avenue, New York, denying himself to all callers.

The New French Church.

The French government has accepted the constitution of the Cultural Association known as the French Apostolic Catholic Church, organized under the leadership of Henri des Houx, who in September last attempted to organize the League of French Catholics, with the object of bringing about the acceptance of the Church and State separation law. Abbe Roussin has been named parish priest of the chapel, near the Place de Clichy, formerly belonging to the expelled Barnabite Order, where the services will be opened. It will in future be called the Church of the Holy Apostles, and Archbishop Vilatte, of Texas, head of the Independent Catholic movement in America, will lend his aid and authority temporarily to establish the spiritual jurisdiction of the new church and will ordain clergy and bishops, who will be elected by the parishioners.

Counterfeit Money in Richmond.

Counterfeit bank notes, ranging in denomination from $20 to $1fi0, have been unloaded to the extent of many thousands of dollars in Richmond within the last 30 days. The spurious notes are cleverly executed specimens of the counterfeiter's skill.

Capt. George Foster, of the United States Secret Service, who has been in Richmond a week endeavoring to ferret out the source from which the bills flowed into the city, said yesterday that the counterfeits are the most dangerous that have come under the observation of the department in several years. Captain Foster exhibited a stack of the bills, an accumulation taken up by him from the different banking houses that have been victimized or that detected and held the bills.

The detective does not believe the crooked money gang responsible for the notes printed in Richmond. He would say nothing of what he has discovered during the week he has spent in Richmond, except that the counterfeits are, most of them, of larger denomination than twenties. He declined to divulge the names of any of the individual or business firms that have been victimized. It is believed that the makers of the queer money shipped large quantities of the bills to agents in Richmond and unloaded the spurious notes in a few days and took their departure.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a large tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life.' Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at E. S. Tortured Aged Hermit.

A dispatch from Eau Claire, Berrien county, Mich., to the Detroit Free Press says:

"The body of Daniel Heaston, a hermit, was found late Tuesday night frozen in his own blood in a small hut near the house where Heaston had been living alone near Mud Lake. The shocking mutilation of the body and other evidences about the place led to the conclusion that the old man had been brutally tortured to make him reveal the hiding place of his money. Amputated fingers lay scattered about, and the appearance of a heavy rope and of a beam over which it hung, with marks on the victim's neck, indicated that he had been strung up to the rafter for a time. Apparently a blow on the head with a hatchet had finally ended his sufferings. It is thought that the murderers secured the booty they sought, as no money was found in the place. Heaston inherited a considerable fortune several years ago, and had recently been displaying and spending his money quite freely. A posse and bloodhounds are searching for the murderers."

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 24, 1907.

THE PRESIDENT has finally dismissed the incident connected with the refusal by Governor Swettenham, of Jamaica, of aid from Admiral Davis, as is shown in a letter, made public at the State Department, addressed by acting Secretary Bacon to Charge Howard. It is now time for the newspapers to drop the matter and allow sensible people both in the United States and England to think about something else. The British government has done all that could be expected toward eliminating the unfortunate incident and restoring the friendly relations which have so long existed between the mother country and the American republic. Sensational newspapers however, continue to publish versions of the Kingston affair as given by persons arriving at northern ports from Jamaica which are intended to keep alive a flame which is flickering and about to expire. Most of those interviewed by eager reporters are evidently biased and their descriptions of conditions at Kingston subsequent to the earthquake should be taken with due allowance.

THE annual report of the Surgeon-General of the United States army contains a table showing the death rate in the various armies, with a view to comparison. Under the head of "acute alcoholism" the United States army has first place, with 28.89 in every thousand admitted to medical treatment. In the German army the rate is only 0.09, or "more than three hundred time less than in our army." In the French army the cases of acute alcoholism to the thousand are given as 0.18, in the Dutch 0.24, and in the British 2.1, "which demonstrates," say the friends of the canteen, "that there is from one hundred to three hundred times as much alcoholism in our army, where the canteen has been abolished, as there is in European armies, which have no such protection."

TOMORROW, January 25, the elections will take place to renew the German Reichstag. The broad issue before the voters is whether the government shall persist in the costly policy of colonial adventure. In a narrower sense the issue is whether Emperor William shall be sustained in his act dissolving the parliament. Against the Government are the socialists, the Catholic centre and the Poles for different reasons. With the Government are the nationals and a portion of the liberals, the latter of whom find sufficient reason for their course in combating the socialists. The Government will probably win.

MR. GROSVENOR, of Ohio, for twenty years conspicuous among the republicans of the House, yesterday sang his swan song to that body. He retires from the House in March and it is hoped from political life for ever. Yesterday he took the tariff for his subject, warning the people never to accept the word of the democrats in regard to it and advising the republicans to continue to stand pat against all propositions to reduce the tariff rates. The country is to be congratulated upon the retirement of Mr. Grosvenor.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Jan. 24.

Secretary Metcalf, of the Navy Department, has received by cable from Rear Admiral Davis, who commanded the American squadron at Kingston, positive confirmation of the correspondence as published which took place between him and Governor Swettenham. In this connection, Secretary Metcalf announces that Admiral Davis had ample authority for landing sailors on Jamaican soil, as is evident from the following dispatches forwarded by him through Admiral Evans before Davis left Kingston: "Yielding to the entreaties of the colonial secretary and the inspector of police, who spoke for the Governor, I landed 50 men under arms from the Indiana." It is further announced that under date of January 18, Admiral Davis received the following letter:

Colonial Secretary's office,
Jamaica, January 18.

"Sir: I beg to thank your excellency for the kind assistance which you have rendered to the government of this colony. I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

J. A. SWETTENHAM,
Governor."

The investigation into the discharge of the three companies of colored soldiers by the President's order for alleged participation in the Brownsville affair which the Senate directed should be made by the committee on military affairs, will be conducted before the full committee. It was decided that no attorneys, representing any of the interests, involved in the inquiry, should be heard, the members of the committee preferring to conduct the examination and cross examination themselves. Subpoenas for the officers of companies B C and D, of the 25th infantry, the discharged troops, some of the non-commissioned officers and several of the men, whose testimony is wanted at this time, will be issued at once.

The House committee on military affairs today ordered a favorable report on the bill permitting the wives of soldiers to be buried in the same graves in the national cemeteries. The late Mrs. Tanner, wife of Corporal Tanner, during her life time worked strenuously for the measure. Upon her death Corporal Tanner took up the movement and it is largely due to his influence that the measure was reported to the House.

John T. Andrews, alias John Templeton, former city clerk of Atlantic City who disappeared seven months ago, was arrested here today in the Pennsylvania station. Since his disappearance Andrew's books have been in the hands of auditors and he has been found to be from $60,000 to $80,000 short in his account.

The President favors an insurance law for the District of Columbia on the lines of the so-called Ames bill, already introduced in the House, revising it so as to include in it all desirable features of the so-called uniform bill. He thinks that the Department of Insurance of the District of Columbia should be made a bureau in the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Partly as a result of the resignation of Chairman Shonts of the Panama canal commission, chairman Millard of the Senate committee on interoceanic canals will introduce a bill to abolish the offices of the commission in this city and put the conduct of the canal enterprise in the hands of one man instead of a commission of seven, as now, or of three members as has been proposed.

The House today amended the pension appropriation bill so as to reduce the number of pension agencies from eighteen to one. This one, it was explained, would be located in Washington. By a vote of 58 to 114 the House refused to appropriate for nine agencies instead of eighteen.

It was officially announced today that Chief Engineer Stevens will be appointed Chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission, vice Theodore P. Shonts, resigned. The four vacancies now existing in the commission will be filled, temporarily at least, by the appointment of four of the bureau chiefs who are now at work on the Isthmus. Mr. Shonts is still president of the Panama Railroad Company but at its annual meeting, which will occur in April, his successor will be chosen. The President has the highest regard for Mr. Stevens' abilities and is in favor of consolidating the responsibilities of the canal management as much as possible.

President Roosevelt promised today to press a button at the White House some day in May that will fire a rifle at Charleston, S C. The occasion will be the opening of the triennial shooting festival of the National Schuetzenbund. A large delegation from the bund, headed by President H. E. Jahnz and convoyed by Representative Legare, called at the President's office today. The President also promised to write a letter to be read at the festival.

A special session of the Senate committee on foreign relations will be held tomorrow at which Senator Lodge's resolution on the Kongo Free State will be considered and probably reported favorably.

The State department received the following despatch today from Vice Consul Orrett, at Kingston, Jamaica: "No dead Americans reported to date. Silvester Taylor is alive."

J. G. Deponal says he was invited by two clever Frenchmen at his home in the Harper Building yesterday and relieved of $50.

John P. Andrews, city clerk at Atlantic City, N. J., was arrested by detectives at the National Hotel this morning. He is said to be $80,000 short in his accounts.

The House committee on patents today completed consideration of the bill revising the patent and copyright laws. The main feature of the bill gives to author a copyright on all their works during their life time and continues it for thirty years after death for the benefit of their heirs.

The House committee on naval affairs today recommended the construction of a battleship of not less than 20,000 tons to cost $10,000,000 in addition to the one authorized year; two torpedo boat destroyers; $3,000,000 to be expended for submarine torped boats; and addition of 15,000 sailors and 800 marines.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 24

SENATE.

The Senate adjourned at 12:10 this afternoon out of respect to the memory of the late Senator Alger, of Michigan.

HOUSE.

In opening the House today Chaplain Couden made reference to the death of Senator Alger, of Michigan.

The House today finished the general debate on the pension appropriation bill and began the reading of the bill clause by clause.

Mr. Mann, (rep., Ills.), criticised the Interstate Commerce Commission for suggesting to Speaker Cannon that Congress give it power and make an appropriation to investigate block signals and other devices for the automatic control of trains. The responsibility for making the investigation is not upon Congress, he said, but upon the commission inasmuch as Congress authorized just this work last session.

Mr. Mann said he felt that neither Chairman Knapp nor Secretary Mosely knew such a request was sent to Congress, but that it was sent either by a subordinate or a new member of the commission.

Mr. Lamar, introduced a joint resolution providing for the election by a direct vote of the people of all federal judges and postmasters.

Mr. Bishop, of Michigan, after the passage of the pension appropriation bill, announced to the House the death of Senator Alger. He introduced resolutions expressing the profound sorrow of the House and providing for the appointment of a committee to represent the House at the funeral. As a further mark of respect the House at 2:30 adjourned until tomorrow.

The Two Cent Fare Bill.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday continued the hearing in the two-cent passenger rate case. Assistant General Passenger Agent Bronson, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, was on the stand. He sought to impress the commission with the contention that density of population should govern passenger rates, and intimated that the population in Virginia was not so dense as to justify a reduction of rates. In Virginia, he said, the average population to the mile is only 46, which he contrasted with a population much greater per mile in other States. He was reminded however, that in some of the northwestern States the population is only six to the mile, and yet the roads make money out of passenger traffic. The Norfolk and Western will next be called.

SHONTS RESIGNS.

Theodore P. Shonts has resigned as chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission in order to accept a much more lucrative place in New York city in charge of the Belmont-Ryan traction interests there. His resignation has been accepted "with extreme reluctance" by President Roosevelt, but no announcement has yet been made of his successor.

Following is the official correspondence relating to Mr. Shonts' resignation, which was made public at the White House yesterday:

"New York, Jan. 22 1907.

My Dear Mr. President: I hereby tender my resignation as chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission, effective at your pleasure, but not later than March 4, 1907.

It is unnecessary for me to assure you of my great appreciation of the confidence you have reposed in me and of the splendid support you have always accorded me since my first appointment by you. Very sincerely yours.

T. P. SHONTS.

Under Tuesday's date the President replied to Mr. Shonts as follows:

My Dear Mr. Shonts: I accept your resignation as chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission, to take effect on March 4, with extreme reluctance, I do so merely because I do not feel justified in preventing your acceptance of the position you have been asked to take in New York—a position of such great consequence, not merely to the people with whom you will be associated in the business management of the enterprise, but to all the citizens of New York. You have shown throughout your association with the Isthmian Canal Commission such energy, administrative capacity, fertility of resource and judgment in handling men, together with such entire devotion to your work, that I hardly know whether most to regret the fact that the national government is to lose you or most to congratulate those who are to profit by your services in your new position.

With all good wishes for your future and with the heartiest thanks on behalf of the Government for what you have done in the last 18 months in the vitally responsible position you have held, believe me, ever sincerely yours,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

It is said that Mr. Shonts for some time has had under consideration the offer made him by the Belmont-Ryan interests in New York. It is believed that the refusal of the President to take the Panama canal entirely from under the jurisdiction of the War Department had something to do with Mr. Shonts' final decision to leave the government service.

MR. BAILEY'S SPEECH.

Senator J. W. Bailey, upon the ratification of his election as United States Senator, addressed the Texas legislature and thousands of cheering friends in the galleries yesterday. He made a caustic speech, in which he assailed W. R. Hearst, declaring that he is "no democrat," but a man who had "drank the liquor of the trusts," and had promised to get William Jennings Bryan and himself (Bailey) out of the political life.

"It is customary for a man on an occasion of this kind to thank his friends and to forgive his enemies," said the Senator, "and I will observe this custom.

"Hearst inaugurated this campaign against me last June, when he published an article in his Cosmopolitan Magazine."

Mr. Bailey scored Hearst in strong words for his methods. He also said: "While I differ as widely as the poles with Roosevelt on all political questions, he, nevertheless, has my hearty indorsement for his action in discharging the negro troops at Brownsville."

Bailey devoted some of his remarks to the negro question and said that the white race would always be the superior.

Representative Cocke yesterday evening filed with the Bailey investigation committee, which will hereafter meet jointly, additional charges against the Senator, as follows: "That while the Senator from Texas, Bailey, appeared before the War Department and procured the payment of a bill rendered by F. J. Hall, for furnishing beef to the agent at Anadarko, Ind. T., for which Hall paid Bailey well; that in 1901 Bailey represented S. B. Burrett, of Fort Worth to secure the lease of lands in the Kiowa and Comanche reservations; that in 1900 Bailey procured similar leases for the firm of Sugg Bros.; and that in 1903, when the Department of the Interior ordered certain stockmen to remove their stock from Indian lands, Bailey had the order modified." Cocke alleges in his charges that for all of this Bailey received "good and substantial fees."

A telegram was sent from St. Louis, Mo., yesterday, by David R. Francis to the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House of the general assembly of Texas. He vigorously denied the charge made against Senator Bailey that he was influenced by Francis and his brother in the interest of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company and at variance with his proper course as a Senator from Texas. He demands that the charges either be withdrawn or made the subject of legislative investigation by giving him a hearing.

River and Harbor Bill.

The river and harbor bill, which will be reported in the House today, will contain appropriations amounting to $83,466,138. Of this $34 631,612 will be in cash and $48,834,526 in authorizations for continuing contracts. The bill will be the largest in the history of the country, exceeding that of 1896, the largest heretofore, by $11,000,000.

Chairman Burton last night gave out a statement of the amounts of the bill. Included in them are $258,000 for the improvement of the Potomac river at Washington and $127,000 for dredging the Anacostia river.

Virginia is liberally provided for, the appropriations being distributed as follows: Norfolk harbor and its approaches, $37,825; for the channel from deep water in Hampton Roads to Norfolk, $282,000 in cash and $850,000 authorized; Hampton Roads, $12.000; Cape Charles City harbor, $35,000; York, Mattaponi, and Pamunkey rivers and Occoquan and Carter's creeks, $49,000; Nomini creek, $5,000; Rappahannock river, $77,729 in cash and $90,000 authorized; James river, $175,000; Nansemond river, $5,000; Appomattox river, $50,000, and Blackwater river, $8,000.

Harry Fry, son of Butler Fry, aged twenty-one years, living near Lovettsville, Loudoun county, attempted to committ suicide Tuesday at the home of Alonzo Snoots, near that place by shooting in the left breast. The ball from a pistol penetrated the left lung near the heart, and, when found, he was unconscious in the yard adjoining Mr. Snoots's residence. Fry two weeks ago married Miss Bessie Butts, and they had been living at the home of her parents. By reason of some unknown disagreement, his wife left her home and went to the Snoots residence, and her husband, learning this fact, followed her after dark, and in the presence of the family, inflicted the wound, from which he cannot recover. He threatened to shoot himself again in case his first attempt at suicide fails.

MORE PAY.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the Senate yesterday accepted the proposition of the House, to increase the salaries of senators, members and territorial delegates to $7,500 annually, and those of the Vice President, the Speaker of the House and members of the President's Cabinet to $12,000. This action was taken by a vote of 53 to 21, and followed a discussion of nearly three hours. An amendment confining the increase to Cabinet officers and the presiding officers of the Senate and House was voted down, as was also a proposition to postpone the increase until 1913. The increase becomes effective March 4, 1909.

A conference committee was appointed as to the other matters of disagreement between the House and Senate on the legislative bill.

In the debate which preceded the adoption of the salary increase proposition, Mr. Berry contended that $5,000 was not a grossly inadequate salary for senators and members of Congress. He denied that they could not live on that amount. "There is not one-half of them," he declared, "who ever could or did make $5,000 a year engaged in any other business."

Senator Nelson offered an amendment confining the increase to the vice president, speaker and cabinet officers, and spoke in support of it.

On a roll-call the Nelson amendment was defeated by a vote of 17 to 56.

The Mallory amendment, postponing the increase to 1913, was voted down by a vote of 14 to 61.

The total increased expenditure in which the government is involved by reason of the increased salaries authorized is estimated at $1,224,000 a year.

The Richmond Fire.

The worst fire in the history of Richmond since its evacuation by the federal troops swept the heart of the city yesterday morning. The loss will probably reach half a million dollars.

The armory of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion is in ruins and the arms and equipment of that organization are lost. The B. P. Johnson Publishing Company, the Surburg Tobacco Company, the Southern Paper Company and the Southern Express Company suffered heavy losses.

The first blaze was followed by two other fires, one in the large lumber plant of Whitehurst & Owen and the other in the building occupied by the B. F. Johnson Publishing Company and the Southern Paper Company. At one time a terrible conflagration was threatened.

The Chamber of Commerce, the Mutual Building and other valuable property was threatened. Fire Chief George C. Shaw and Capt. J. V. Haake were severely injured during the fire and many firemen were hurt. The three simultaneous fires gave the department the most terrible experience in the 10 hours of sustained effort imposed upon the men that it has ever passed through.

Today's Telegraphic News

Death at Senator Alger.

Washington, D. C. Jan. 24.—Senator Russell A. Alger, of Michigan, formerly Secretary of War, died at 9 o'clock this morning at his home in this city, 1401 16th street. The cause was heart trouble, from which he had been suffering for some time. The end came very suddenly. Senator Alger had been in the Senate chamber regularly and about the city attending to his usual duties. He seemed to be somewhat feeble, but no more so than he had been for months.

The family of Senator Alger, on being consulted on the subject by the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and by Senator Burrows, decided against holding public funeral services in the Senate chamber. Up to this afternoon funeral arrangements had not been completed, although the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate called at the house for the purpose of taking matters in hand, shortly before noon. Full military honors, to which a former secretary of War is entitled, will be arranged for by the War Department. Burial will be made in Elmwood Cemetery, Detroit, to the Senator's home in which city the remains will be shipped immediately following the services in this city. This information was conveyed to the Senate by Senator Penrose shortly after it had convened today after he had in broken tones officially announced the death of his colleague. He then offered a resolution expressive of the deep regret with which the Senate heard of the death of Mr. Alger and recommended the appointment of a committee of 12 Senators to arrange for the funeral service which will be held at the Senator's late residence on Saturday January 26, at 2 p. m. The Senate will attend these services in a body. As a further mark of respect it was provided that the committee should convey the remains from the Senator's residence to Detroit, Mich., under charge of the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and that the members of the Michigan delegation of the House of Representatives be invited to accompany the funeral party.

The resolution was agreed to and the Senate as a further mark of respect adjourned.

The following were named as the committee: Senators Burrows, Frye, Daniel, Nelson, Warren, Spooner, Scott, Dillingham, Foster, Patterson, Dick and Crane.

Russell Alexander Alger was born in Medina county, Ohio, February 27, 1836. During his boyhood years he labored on a farm, attending the Richfield Academy in winter, and subsequently he taught a country school. He later studied law at Akron, Ohio, and was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of that State in 1859. In that year he removed to Grand Rapids, Michigan. He had been extensively engaged in the lumber business and other industries since 1866. He served throughout the civil war, progressing from the rank of captain to colonel and receiving the brevet rank of major general for his services. He participated in 66 battles and skirmishes. He was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1889. In politics General Alger was always a republican. He was elected Governor of Michigan in 1884, declining a renomination in 1886. At the Chicago convention held in 1888 he received 143 votes for President on the first ballot, the State of Michigan voting solidly for him on every ballot. His term would have expired March 4 next.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Jan. 24.—With two jurors in the box the trial of Harry K. Thaw moved forward early today with a rush which promises to determine quickly whether the young Pittsburg millionaire is guilty or innocent of killing Architect Stanford White. The selection of the jury proceeds with a celerity rarely seen in great capital cases. District Attorney Jerome hopes to have the jury completed early next week, when the taking of evidence will commence.

That Harry Thaw's life rests in the hands of his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the former artist model, all believe. Upon her story on the witness stand depends whether Thaw shall pay fatal forfeit in the electric chair. Knowing this District Attorney Jerome today again examined all talesmen closely on their opinions of the "unwritten law," and what effect sympathy might play in finding a verdict. Thaw's wife wept softly all through the trial of her husband.

The beautiful artist model will try to move the jury with not only her natural charms, but with a powerful story filled with human sympathy. The plea of emotional insanity hinges upon this story of Evelyn Nesbit. The jury will determine whether her alleged wrongs at the hands of Stanford White were sufficient to provoke so great a transitory defect of reason in Harry Thaw and to cause him to kill his wife's former admirer.

When court opened it was learned that Mrs. Charles J. Holman, mother of Evelyn Nesbit, had placed herself under the jurisdiction of the New York court, and would testify against Harry Thaw. She will tell the story of White's care for her daughter in seeking to keep Thaw away from the girl whom he is alleged to have cruelly ill-treated. Mrs. Holman, is in the city, but her place of abode is kept secret.

Mrs. Stanford White, the widow of the architect, will not appear at the trial.

Mr. Shonts' New Position.

New York, Jan. 24.—The calling of Theodore P. Shonts to New York to become president of the Interborough-Metropolitan Company, it is understood, in financial circles, is part of the plan of this company to bid for all subway routes soon to be contracted for by the city. August Belmont, former President of the company, in withdrawing from the position, announced that other business interests prevented him giving the Inter-Met. office the attention it needed. Mr. Shonts will devote all his time to it. Announcement of Mr. Shonts' elected as President of the local company was made shortly after the news of his resignation as chairman of the Panama Canal Commission had been received.

Kansas City, Mo. Jan 14.—"Not a bit" said Theodore P. Shonts, chairman of the Istimian Canal Commission, in his private car, here this morning, when asked if his resignation, which he handed President Roosevelt, was caused by being chafed because Congress has not affirmed him as Chairman after the President made the appointment.

Merchant Murdered.

London, Jan. 24.—William Whiteley, head of one of England's greatest department stores, was assassinated today. Considerable mystery surrounds the tragedy. The Star declares the assassin is Cecil Whiteley, son of the merchant. An official statement, however, declares the assassin has not been identified. After shooting Whiteley, the assassin turned his weapon on himself. The wound did not prove fatal, and he was hurried to a hospital. He is alleged to have said: "I shot my father," and on this the Star bases its story that the murderer was the dead man's son.

Whiteley and the murderer were closeted in the merchent's private office for an hour before the shooting. Whiteley emerged from the room first, remarking. "I can't argue with you any longer. If you do not go I will call the police." Drawing a revolver the man fired point blank at the merchant. A stray bullet struck a customer, but inflicted only a slight wound. Whiteley, who was the Marshall Field of London, had a phenomenal career. He came to London as a boy in 1851, from his home in Wakefield with ten pounds in his pocket. Today his store employs over 1,000 persons and his income was estimated at $1,000,000 annually. He was of a deeply religious turn of mind.

Late this afternoon, the police confirmed the report that the assassin had given the name of Cecil Whiteley, at the hospital, and spoke the words attributed to him, "I shot my father." Whiteley's two sons who visited the man at the hospital, declare they do not know him and never heard of him.

The Cold Wave.

New York, Jan 24.—With the thermometer down to 2° below zero New York had its worst taste of winter today, then it slowly climbed the ladder again. A Middletown the mercury fell to 29 below and an even lower temperature prevailed in Sullivan county. At Owego it was 24 below.

Fighting in Morocco.

Tangier, Morocco, Jan. 24.—Fighting between government troops and the forces of Raisuli, the bandit, is in progress in the Beni country, where Raisuli is entrenched. Reports received here say the entire country near Raisuli's camp has been devastated. Thirty villages have been burned and all the women and children in the places were massacred. One thousand of the Sultan's soldiers, commanded by the military commander of Tangier, assaulted a fortress occupied by Raisuli's men. Their first attack was repulsed with a loss of 50 men. Later reports from the scene say the battle is still on.

Preparing to Receive the King.

London, Jan. 24.—Great preparations are being made at Cliveden, the country home of Waldorf Astor, for the coming visit of King Edward to the young couple. The whole place is being redecorated in the most lavish style. In the announcement of the king's visit to Cliveden society finds plenty to discuss. It really is a declaration that King Edward has decided to forgive the father of his host, William Waldorf Astor, for a snub administered six years ago to Sir Archibald Berkeley Milne, a friend of the king.

Negro Assailant Lynched.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 24.—Greenwood, Miss., the home of Governor Vardaman, was the scene last night of an expeditious lynching. The mob did not embarrass the Governor by inviting him to join. The deputy sheriff was overpowered and Bell was hustled down the track to a railroad bridge from which he was hanged.

Red and Black Flags in Procession.

Boston, Jan. 24.—Undaunted by zero weather, fully 1,400 social democrats last evening marched through the streets of Boston carrying red and black flags, waving torches and lustily shouting for the downfall of the Czar. The parade was in commemoration of the "Bloody Sunday" of two years ago in St. Petersburg, and was intended as a protest of American citizens against the present regime in Russia.

Pastor Installed.

The services in connection with the installation of Rev. Joseph R. Sevier as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city last night were interesting and impressive, and were witnessed by a large concourse of people. Nearly every seat in the auditorium was occupied, as were also those in the gallery. The services began at 7:30 o'clock. The following was the order of exercises:

Anthem; Hymn, No. 531, congregation (standing); Scripture Lesson, Rev. James I. Vance; prayer, Rev. D. W. Wills, D. D.; anthem; sermon, Rev. James I. Vance, D. D.; hymn, No. 325, congregation, (standing); constitutional question and installation, Rev. H. W. Pratt; charge to pastor, Rev. Wm. Chinn; anthem; charge to congregation, Rev. James Taylor; hymn, No 566, congregation (standing); prayer, Rev. James I. Vance.

The sermon of Rev. Mr. Vance had been well conceived and it abounded in many forcible illustrations. His text was from the Epistle to the Philippians (iii., 14). Among other things, he called attention to the fact that men and women get out of their religion what they put in it. Generally a man who devotes his industry and talents to his business reaps the fruit of his labors. The same rule applies to the spiritual life. Those who invest little and make but feeble efforts to grow in the faith, could expect no harvest; while those who patiently continue in well-doing are assured of their reward. The reverend gentleman likened the Christian's road to the other world to a trunk line railway with its many side tracks, branches and spurs. Numbers, unfortunately, leave the main stem and become side-tracked, while others press on toward the mark of their high calling.

At the close of Mr. Vance's sermon Rev. N. W. Pratt, of Washington, propounded the usual constitutional questions to Rev. Mr. Sevier, after which Rev. Wm. Chinn, of Warrenton delivered the charge to the newly-selected pastor. This was done in a succinct and impressive manner.

Rev. James Taylor's charge to the congregation, which followed, was very interesting. There was at times a suspicion of humor in the reverend gentleman's remarks, coupled with practical, serious and important thoughts. His manner was pleasing throughout and his short but pointed sermon left an impression upon all his hearers.

At the close of the exercises Rev. Mr. [illegible] the pulpit and pro[illegible]diction.

[illegible]ation then advanced [illegible] the pulpit for the purpose [illegible]oing the new pastor, [illegible]ho from 1888 to 1891 [illegible]econd Church, [illegible], as did Rev. Dr. [illegible] occupied the pulpit [illegible] numerous occasions [illegible]ear. Rev. Messrs [illegible], Chinn and Taylor, all of whom are known to the Presbyterians of this city, having preached here on different occasions, were also accorded cordial greetings.

It was about ten o'clock when the congregation left the church, all feeling that it was good for them to have been there.

The choir was at its best last night, and the singing was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Death of Dr. Walker.

Rev. Cornelius Walker, D. D., late dean and professor at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, died late yesterday evening at a sanitarium near Baltimore, where he was receiving treatment, as he had been in failing health for some time. The deceased was born in Richmond in 1819, and early in youth attended the Episcopal High School, near this city, passing from that school to the Theological Seminary, nearby, from which he graduated in 1845, being ordained a deacon in June of that year. He was appointed to Amherst Courthouse where he remained for two years, when he became assistant at St. Paul's Church at Richmond, serving one year. He was called to Christ Church in Winchester in 1848, remaining there until 1860, when he was called to Christ Church in this city (succeeding Rev. Dr. C. B. Dana), where he remained only one year, owing to the breaking out of the civil war. He subsequently accepted a call to Emanuel Church, Hanover county, where he remained until 1867, when he became professor of church history at the seminary. After the death of Rev. Dr. Sparrow, of that institution, he became professor of theology, and was appointed dean on the retirement of Dr. Packard from that office in 1896. Dr. Walker retired from the seminary in 1898, having been a professor there for 30 years. He discharged the duties of his professorship with conspicuous ability. After his retirement he lived chiefly with his son-in-law, Rev. Mr. LaMothe, in Washington. Dr. Walker was a man of lovely Christian character, and was much beloved as a pastor in his several parishes. His wife was a Miss Fisher, of Richmond. She died a few years ago in Winchester. He is survived by three daughters, all of whom are the wives of ministers, and they are the last of a large family. His remains will be interred in Winchester tomorrow.

Daughters of Isabella.

At the installation of the newly-elected officers of the Daughters of Isabella at St. Mary's Hall on Tuesday night the ceremonies were conducted by Territorial Deputy, Dr. E. A. Gorman, assisted by Mr. Francis P. Sheehy, State Deputy, of this city, and Mr. Peter N. Schoni, Warden of the Knights of Columbus, of Washington. Letters were read from Mr. David J. Callahan, State Deputy, K. of C., of Virginia; Mr. John J. Sheehan, District Deputy, K. of C., of Roanoke, and Mr. J. J. Murphy, District Deputy, K of C., of Norfolk, regretting their inability to be present.

George, the infant son of Mr. Christopher and Mrs. Laura Gill, died at his parents' home, No. 111 Prince street, this morning.

Fire in Washington.

The Academy of Music, a local theater at Ninth and D streets northwest Washington, was guttered by fire shortly after 5 o'clock this morning. All the scenery and property of "The Secrets of the Police Company," playing there for the week, went up in flames. The total loss of the theater and theatrical company, the Spencerian Business College and other tenants of the building is estimated at $100,000. Prof. L. P. W. Stiehl, proprietor of the business college, his wife and father, were sleeping in the building, and were carried from the burning building in a precarious condition. On the way to the fire an engine collided with a street car, killing two horses.

Prof. Stiehl at one time conducted a school at the southeast corner of King and Pitt streets, in this city, where he was well-known. The news of the fire reached this city at an early hour this morning and numbers of Alexandrians went to Washington and proceeded to the scene of the conflagration.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Wm. English, arrested by Officers Beach and Henderson charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $10 or 30 days in jail.

James Lucas, arrested by the same officers charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $10 or 30 days in jail.

George Lomax, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Garvey charged with assaulting and beating Mary Braxton, was fined $10.

Robert Willory, colored, arrested by Officers Bell and Jones charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Mary Carter, colored, arrested by Officers Henderson and Beach for using abusive language toward Eliza Devers, was dismissed.

Nellie Stewart, colored, arrested by Officer Knight, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Teas.

The Musical Tea, given yesterday evening for the benefit of the Good Shepherd Mission, was a success in every particular. The spacious rooms were crowded during the hours of the reception, the musical progamme was beautifully rendered, and the refreshments daintily served. The young ladies to whom the success of the tea is due, are: Misses Marian Bryan, Mary Leadbeater, Dorsey Ashton, Lelia Steiner, Clarence Snowden, Jessie Armstrong, Elsie Snowden, Rebecca Uhler, Ellen Fawcett.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the board of mission of St. Paul's Parish, will hold a "tea" in the Rectory, Friday afternoon, January 25th, from three to five o'clock. Chocolate and tea will be served, for which a small sum will be asked.

Bear in Fairfax.

People from Fairfax county say that a bear is prowling around in the neighborhood of Springfield. The brute last night invaded the yard of a resident of that vicinity and appropriated the contents of a slop barrel. Bruin's tracks have been traced, and there is some anxiety among persons compelled to be out at night. Springfield is but nine miles from Alexandria, and the bear may stray to the confines of this city.

The Gas Works.

The resignation of Mr. Harry Hantzmon as superintendent of the city gas works will take effect tomorrow and Mr. Hantzmon expects to leave for his new field in Charlottesville on Monday. Mr. Frank Latham has been put in charge of the works by the light committee of Council and will continue to hold the position until Council elects a superintendent. Mr Latham will be a candidate for election.

Dedication.

The chancel of the chapel of the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city will be dedicated tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, when services appropriate to the occasion will be held and to which the public is invited. Addresses will be made by Bishop Potter, of New York, Bishop Gibson, of Virginia, and Rev. Dr. Crawford, dean of the Seminary.

Funeral.

The remains of Captain James E. McCracken, who died in Washington on Tuesday, were brought here today for interment. The remains were escorted to this city by Sioux Tribe, No. 18, of Red Men, who were joined here by members of Osceola Tribe, of this city. The interment was in Union Cemetery.

Candidates.

Since the resignation of Col. R. E. Lee as a member of the House of Delegates from Fairfax county, three candidates have entered the field and there will be others. Those who have already announced themselves are Messrs. W. T. Oliver, Franklin Williams and H. L. Schade.

Runaway.

A horse attached to a buggy belonging to Mr. DeW. Aitcheson run away on south Royal street shortly after noon today. The animal turned east into Prince street and continued to the Strand where it ran south and stopped at Mr. Aitcheson's wood yard. The shafts of the buggy were broken.

Charges Against an Officer.

Lieutenant Smith will prefer charges against Policeman Stewart Jones for violation of certain rules governing the police force, the Lieutenant having been informed that the officer was recently under the influence of liquor.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like D. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcome the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

To stop a Cold with "Preventics" is safer than to let it run and cure it afterwards. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will head off a cold and Grippe and perhaps save you from pneumonia or Bronchitis. Preventics are little toothsome candy cold cure tablets selling in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes. If you are chilly, if you begin to sneeze, try Preventics. They will surely check the cold, and please you. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Rev. Berryman Green, of the Theological Seminary, will preach next Sunday at St. James Episcopal Church, Leesburg, of which he was once rector.

Mr. John P. Gremlich and Miss Addie A. Ennis, both of Washington, were married at the parsonage of the M. E. Church South by Rev. Charles D. Bails, on Wednesday.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Trinity Methodist Parsonage by Rev. J. A. Jeffers, Tuesday evening, January 22nd, at 7:45 o'clock, when Miss Hattie L. Meeks and J. Wilmer McMenamin, both of this city, were united in matrimony. The bride's maid of honor was Miss A. Eunice Carter, of Lynchburg, wearing garnet voil over taffeta. Miss Emma Louise Forge of this city was bridesmaid, grownd in garnet voil over taffeta. The groom was attended by his brother Mr. Edgar B. McMenamin. The bride was attired in seal brown chiffon voil over taffeta hat and gloves to match. A reception was held at the home of the bride, 1125 Duke street, for the immediate family and bridal party.

Charged With Bigamy.

W. F. Schools was brought to Washington under arrest last night from Tappahannock, Essex county, and lodged in jail, charged with bigamy. It seems that Schools married a woman in Baltimore about two years ago. He afterwards deserted that wife, and married a woman in Washington. He took his last wife to Tappahannock to live and the Baltimore wife heard of his whereabouts and notified the Washington police. An officer was sent to Tappahannock and returned last night with his man. Schools is about thirty-five years old.

Opera House.

"The Little Duchess," a comedy-drama in five acts, was excellently presented at the Opera House last night by the May Hillman Stock Company before a large audience. The drama is a well-written one and every member of the company gave a careful interpretation of their parts. Miss Hillman, Mr. Posener and Mr. Herring were exceptionally good. The specialties were very entertaining. Tonight the company will produce "A Wife's Sacrifice," one of the best pieces in their repertoire. New specialties will be introduced. Tomorrow night the company will present (by request) their last season's success—the four-act melodrama entitled "Flood Tide." This drama is intensely interesting and contains many thrilling climaxes, notably the lighthouse scene. This will be an excellent opportunity to witness a good play.

LOCAL BREVITIES

In the Corporation Court today Howard W. Smith was appointed curator of the estate of the late Elizabeth Kavan.

A new schedule will go into effect on the electric road on Sunday next when it is said trains between this city and Washington will be run every twenty minutes.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Richard Thorp and Mary Kendall, both of Alexandria, and to Alec B. Curley and Ollie L. Jenkins, both of Colonial Beach.

As stated yesterday, Mrs. Henrietta Irving Bolton, of Washington, will deliver an address tonight at 8 o'clock in the parish hall of Christ Church before the Girls' Friendly society.

It is understood that the electric railway officials have secured the names of all of the participants in the row which occurred on the late train on Saturday night and that the offenders will be proceeded against.

The weather was cold again last night and more ice formed. The mercury at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 14°. The wind held from the northwest until this morning when it changed to the east, and as the day advanced the temperature rose slowly.

The members of the Senior Euchre Club were most delightfully entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. Gardner L. Boothe at their residence on south Columbus street. The parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion and the games were cleverly played. The prize winners were Mrs. Louis S. Greene, Mrs. L. C. Barley, Mr. C. C. Leadbeater and Judge L. C. Barley. After the games a delicious supper was served.

News of the Day.

At Dayton, Fla., today David Bickley driving the 35 horse power gasoline machine, finished the 100 mile race for the Minneapolis international trophy, first, in 86 minutes 10 seconds.

In the North Carolina Senate yesterday Lovell introduced a bill to allow a pension of $100 per month for the remainder of her life to Mrs. T. J. Stonewall Jackson, now of Charlotte. The bill was accompanied.

By order of the County Court of St. Paul, Minnesota, the Great Northern Railway was enjoined temporarily, pending the court's decision, from issuing its proposed $60,000,000 worth of additional stock without first obtaining approval of the State railway commission.

Bert Seeley an Arizona cowboy, last night shot and killed six Mexicans single handed in combats at a Southern Pacific camp eight miles from Montrzuma, Sonora, Mexico. Seeley had two fights with Mexicans in each of which he disposed of three men and escaped.

The car barns or the Camden Interstate Street Railway were destroyed by fire yesterday. Seventeen cars were burned. The loss is $160,000. The destruction of the cars has paralyzed traffic on the lines, which extend from Guyandotte, W. Va., to Ashland, Ky., and Ironton, O.

Two violent earthquake shocks, which lasted for nearly half a minute each, threw the inhabitants of Kingston, Jamaica, into a complete state of panic yesterday afternoon and shook down a number of standing walls of buildings that were damaged by the original quake. No one was either killed or injured.

In the Senate yesterday an urgent deficiency bill was reported, and Mr. Hale gave notice that he would call it up today. The House considered the pension appropriation bill under general debate. Representative Hayes, of California, advocated the extension of the Chinese exclusion law to the Japanese. Gen. Grosvenor recounted the benefits of the Dingley tariff.

The House judiciary committee yesterday, by 9 to 7, agreed to a favorable report on the Littlefield liquor bill. The measure provides that liquor shipped from one State to another shall be subject to the laws of the State into which it is transported, and is intended to prevent express companies and other common carriers from doing a liquor business in prohibition and local option States. It provides that the place where the money is collected on C. O. D. orders shall be considered the place of sale. All the democrats on the committee voted for the bill and four republicans.

President Roosevelt sent to Congress yesterday a message urging legislation to help American shipping and American trade by the passage of the ship subsidy bill, now pending in the House. He especially desires more steamship lines to South America and the Orient. Government aid to steamship lines, the President argues, is as much a part of the commercial system of today as government employment of consuls to promote business. The proposed law, he says, is based on the most successful precedents, and cites as an instance the new Cunard contract with the British Government.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

All Right In Theory, but Breaks Down In Practice.

Theoretically there is so much in municipal ownership of public utilities that the practical carrying out of its attractive features appears simple and of no serious moment, and for a municipality to take over and run water, lights, sewerage and even transportation appeals to taxpayers, and the trade is made without the first assurance that the conduct of these properties will be along practical and business lines.

It is the failure to assure the practical that works the evil, for municipal ownership is a general ownership and a general ownership results too easily in its being no special business of any citizen or taxpayer to look into or inquire after the conduct of the properties under control. This leaves the management to a few, who soon find that they have only themselves to account to, that people are too busy to demand accountings and taxpayers accept any kind of report. Just so there is the appearance of all being right and light, water, sewerage, etc., are given.

It is this indifference and neglect on the part of taxpayers to take note of municipal affairs which make municipal ownership of public utilities a hazardous and expensive matter. The theory of municipal ownership, with its great saving to each taxpayer, the extra service given and the great profits resulting, can all be placed in figures beforehand, but it is a failure unless the taxpayers shall give earnest and serious heed to the conduct of these public utilities, for unless this is done they will wake up some day with broken down properties and a big bond issue to make good.—Newbern Weekly Journal.

THE GREAT TRANSITION.

Public Property Wasted Because "It Costs Nothing, You Know."

"Hello!" said I. "What's that?" And I stopped to pick it up.

"That?" replied the boy who happened to be passing through the school yard with me. "That is nothing but a lead pencil."

"But it is a whole one," said I, "and with a rubber on the end."

"I know it," said the boy.

"What! Do you mean to tell me that you have seen this here before?"

"Yes, everybody's seen it."

"All the children in your school have seen this lying here day after day and not one boy has picked it up?"

"Of course. What should we pick it up for? There's plenty in the schoolhouse. The town buys 'em."

And I had been given a text for a long meditation. Not pick up a whole new lead pencil? And a pencil with a rubber on it!

When I was a boy we prized even slate pencils. A boy who hooked anybody's slate pencil was baited until he gave it up, but a lead pencil—we fought for lead pencils as the Greeks and Trojans fought for Helen. We scoured the countryside for old horseshoes to sell to the blacksmith for money enough to buy a lead pencil, and, having it, we cut our private mark on it, guarded it, kept it as our last resource in trade. Many a time a precious two inch lead pencil has turned an important jackknife trade one way or the other. I never had but one lead pencil at a time and very often hardly that until I was fifteen years old. And these ten-year-olds scorn to pick up a whole one with a rubber! Think of it! The best eraser I had was a piece of rubber boot heel!—Henry T. Bailey in Journal of Education.

A DAY OF RECKONING.

You Cannot Fool All of the People All of the Time.

The recent condemnation as unfit for further service of a number of gas and electric light plants and the closing down of some of them at a dead loss to the taxpayers should serve as a warning to other cities, for this is the fate that is likely to overtake all such plants in the long run. For the first year or two, when no expensive repairs are needed and the plant is thoroughly up to date, it ought not to be difficult to make a good showing. For a few years longer the bad bookkeeping and inadequate reports, that are unfortunately the rule rather than the exception, may blind the citizens to the deterioration of the plant and to its increasing losses. But the day of reckoning inevitably comes when breakdown, bad service or demand for new equipment that cannot masquerade as "extensions" causes an investigation, and then it becomes evident that the plant has been a losing proposition almost from the start. No plant should be accepted as evidence of successful municipal management until it has been operated for several years and then examined by expert engineers and accountants.

There is nothing more dainty for a picnic or luncheon, than Argo Red Salmon sandwiches or salad. The Cook Book tells you how to prepare them. Ask your grocer.
